

Experiencing Amazing - Part 5
(The Book of Jonah)

“3 Ingredients for Making a Lasting Impact”

Jonah 3:1-10

You are going to have to model true gospel change in yourself, from the inside out, to truly have an _____.

3 Ingredients for Making a Lasting Impact

1. Practice _____.

This passage gives us the blueprint for what true, gospel-centered, repentance looks like:

- Rend your _____
- A broken _____
- Beholding God’s _____

“We can view sin as a failure of performance rather than a failure of intimacy. The only grief we experience is disappointment in our inability to do what is right, and not that we have “despised” the living God” (Matt Erbaugh)

2. Walk in _____.
Hebrews 11:8-10

3. Pursue biblical _____.

True justice that is faithful, humble, and beyond political _____.
(Jeremiah 29:7; Isaiah 1:17; Proverbs 31:8-9)

“Any church that does not exist to take the side of the poor, to denounce injustice, and to hold up righteousness, is a church that has no right to exist.” (Charles Spurgeon)

Personal Reflection & Small Group Questions

Please complete this study on your own, then bring it to your small group for discussion.

1. Looking back over your notes from this week’s sermon, what particularly caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?

2. Read Jonah 3:1-10. Why is true and ongoing repentance necessary for real change and impact in our cities?

3. There are a lot of definitions of justice circulating in our cultural moment. How do Jeremiah 21:7, Isaiah 1:17, Proverbs 31:8-9, and the call to repentance and faith help us to understand what biblical justice is about?

4. What is your outreach temperature today, and what can you do to raise it in the coming week? (Remember, we are stewards of our outreach temperature.)
